

Social Justice and Welfare Mission Report

February 2, 2012

Submitted by John O'Brien

Catholic Worker House (Kathy Klecko)

No report submitted.

Community Meals (Paul Sescilla)

All is well with the community meals. We are still averaging 150 or so guests for the month. We had another group of students from Elizabethtown college volunteer at a dinner on Jan. 20th. It's that time of the year when school students are in need of service hours and are calling to help.

Food Bank (Regina Begley)

Nothing new to report.

Panera Dough-Nation (Joanne Lovell)

All is going very well.

Parish Advocate for People with Disabilities (Yvonne DeVosa)

There is going to be a Diocesan Mass celebrating people with disabilities on April 14th at 5PM at St. Peter's in Elizabethtown, celebrated by Bishop McFadden. St. Mary's will be represented by Nathan Bitts serving on the altar during the mass. All are welcome to attend.

Prison Ministry (Jean Bickmire)

No report submitted.

St. Vincent De Paul (Tina Skubon)

The St. Vincent De Paul Committee responded to almost 100 requests for assistance during the last quarter of 2011.
